

WENDY YANG - STAFF FILE PHOTO

If you're competing in Socialympics, look out for people who may not be drinking or dressing responsibly.

Sun, Sand and Insanity

Check out Socialympics III, a battle of the hotties (or maybe you could call it extreme people-watching) at Midtown Sundries at Lake Norman Saturday. The daylong coed beach competition features battles of the body, wits and social skills in dizzy bat and five-legged races, flip cup, bathing suit swap and others. Team registration is closed, but you can still witness the insanity at the 18665 Harborside Drive spot from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. $10 packages include a T-shirt and ride to the lake from Dixie's Tavern on the Ragin' Uptown Party Bus. Details: info@lazyday.com. — COURTNEY DEVORES